

The establishment of the FCC was in part to protect "spectrum" allocation. The allowing of BPL would be in contradiction to this charter. BPL would virtually eliminate communications on what is referred to as H.F. A variety of services would no longer have reliable communications resulting from high noise levels created by BPL. I would urge you to reconsider this proposal, one that is only in the best interest of the Power Companies.